

Pastor Self Assessment

When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders, to whom they reported everything God had done through him. (Acts 15:4)

Your assessment of your spiritual development and ministerial growth as pastor is a vital part of our mutual efforts of making disciples in our mission fields. Please provide responses in the space available. If you require more space, there's an extra response box provided. Please add corresponding numbers.

Mission Field:

1. What are your two greatest strengths for Kingdom building work in your mission field as described in your assessment of the church? Please provide examples of how you have experienced each of these strengths.

2. What are some examples of how you have helped the church to engage in its mission field more fully and fruitfully during this past year?

3. What are two areas in which you need to grow so that you might better serve your mission field? How will you assess and discern if there has been growth?

Pastor and Congregation Connection:

4. What has been your greatest joy in ministry during the past year? Your greatest disappointment?

5. If you could change one thing about the church you serve, what would that be? Why?

6. How has your ministry and leadership been received by the church the past year? Has it been affirmed? Has it been challenged? Please provide insight as to your answers.

7. How would you describe your preaching style? Please provide examples of fruit that has been borne through your preaching.

Pastor Self-Care:

8. How do you care for yourself (spiritually, emotionally and physically)? How are you being supported by the SPRC and congregation? Who can help you and your family in this way?

9. What continuing education opportunities did you participate in during the past year? How does/will the SPRC and the church encourage and support you in your professional growth?

10. What did you learn as you were in conversation with your SPRC about their ministry and your leadership?
