

Mission U

Mission u is schedule for August 4 – 7, 2019 at Sacramento Camp and Conference Center (Sacramento Methodist Assembly). The event will begin on Sunday afternoon with registration beginning at 3:00 in the small dining room, dinner at 5:30 pm and the first session that evening. The event will conclude on Wednesday prior to lunch. We are looking forward to everyone attending including children and youth. The school will also provide child care for children under the age of 5.

Please encourage children and youth to attend. Our children teacher is Cheri Burch with assistant Karen Wilson and the youth will be led by Rev. Scott Penrod with assistance from Jessica Ward. The other teachers are Cheryl Ferguson and Carolyn Begay teaching the Bible study "Practicing Resurrection: The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship." Patty Coulter will teach the special subject celebrating the United Methodist Women's 150th anniversary "Women United for Change: 150 Years in Mission."

Remember to ask a teen from your church we have a great teacher and the girls have a wonderful time. Your unit pays for them and they need to stay with your delegates. Also encourage youth mothers to attend as child care will be available. There are 3 scholarships available for first time attendees. One for each district. Information about the scholarships in available in the Word Sower and applications need to be sent to the assistant dean Vikki Penrod.

Mission u Scholarships

There are three (3) full scholarships available for first time attendees of Mission u – one for each district. The applicant need only send a letter about herself and her reasons for wanting to attend. In addition to the written responses, please include name, address, local organizations, district and any office held higher than the local level. Scholarships include registration fee; study books; meals and lodging in Aspen Lodge. It will also pay for up to three children within the age of attending camp (kindergarten through seventh grade). Applications are due by July 12, 2019. Please send these to
