

2020 HERITAGE TOUR

Sponsored by
The New Mexico Annual Conference Historical Society

DATE: August 14, 2020 - August 17, 2020

WHERE: Starting at St Johns UMC in Albuquerque at 7:30am on Friday.

WHAT: A Four day Vacation Tour Bus experience to Denver, Colorado! The focus will be on our Colorado Connection!

- ▶ Friday we will meet up in the parking lot of St John's UMC in Albuquerque and be on our way.
- ▶ We will visit Fort Union, established in 1851.
- ▶ We will have lunch at the St James Hotel in Cimarron. The bullet holes are still in the ceiling.
- ▶ We will travel to Pueblo and spend the night at La Quinta Inn.
- ▶ Saturday, we will go to Fairplay, CO, where John Dyer will join us in the Dyer Chapel as we experience the Living History Days at the South Park City outdoor Museum!
- ▶ We will go to the Breckinridge UMC where Father Dyer is still remembered and learn more about his life.

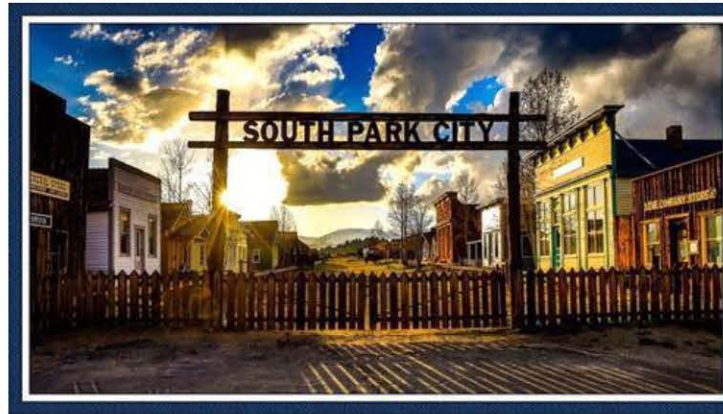

▶ We will arrive in Denver at the Hilton Express where we will be stay for two nights, and dine in the Ship Tavern at the historic Brown Palace Hotel, just across the street.

▶ Sunday is your fun day! Worship at Trinity UMC in downtown Denver. Visit an Art & or History Museum, like the Molly Brown house nearby (5 min walk), or the History Colorado Center (3 min walk) or the Denver Art Museum (3 min walk) Explore one of the parks along the river (9min walk). You choose your own destination and your own way to spend the day!

▶ Monday we will travel back to Pueblo, and visit the Riverwalk with time to explore the sculptures, and have lunch. Then we will head for Albuquerque again, arriving back where we began at about 5:30pm.

COST: $175 for Transportation.

You also pay for 3 nights lodging and your own meals. We will send you all the details and links to do so when you PREREGISTER by email to nmarchives@nmconfum.com
